

The PROGRAM FOLIO, a service to KPFFK subscribers, is published bi-weekly by KPFFK.

Anyone can listen, but those who want creative and provocative programming support KPFFK by a basic annual subscription of $15.00. Contributions are tax-deductible because KPFFK is non-profit. Subscriptions are transferable to KPFA, serving Northern California (2207 Shattuck Ave., Berkeley) and WBAI, serving the New York area (30 E. 39th St., N. Y. 16).

KPFFK and the two other listener-subscription stations form Pacifica, a non-profit educational foundation. KPFFK programming has been favorably reviewed by THE SATURDAY REVIEW, THE LOS ANGELES TIMES, THE NATION, THE NEW YORKER, THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR and numerous other publications. KPFFK has received broadcasting's three most outstanding awards: a PEAABODY, the ALFRED I. DUPONT RADIO AND TELEVISION AWARD and several OHIO STATE AWARDS for excellence in programming.

KPFFK transmits from Mt. Wilson with a power of 110,000 watts. The mailing address is KPFFK, Los Angeles 38, California. Studios and offices are located at 3729 Cahuenga Blvd., North Hollywood. TR 7-5583, ST 1-0150. Normal broadcast hours are 7:00 a.m. to 12:00 midnight Monday through Friday, and 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 midnight on Saturday and Sunday. Dates after listings refer to past or future duplicate broadcasts. Number in parentheses following concerts refer to playing time in minutes. Robert Adler is Manager and Program Director.

The Annual Annual Marches On

You've seen ads for it in the Folio. . . You've heard plugs for it on the air. . . Your friends and fellow-subscribers are whispering about it. . . But before you order it at the special prepublication price of $2.00 (send to KPFFK Annual, Los Angeles 38), you want to know. . . What is it? It's a Pacificaphenomenon — a magazine that's more than a magazine — the appearance of a quality paperback, the size of a large magazine. Its contents include transcripts of some of KPFFK's finest programs, especially prepared and illustrated, articles by critics, artists, and curators on the changing cultural scene in Los Angeles, and answers by selected Commentators for the first time to the same questions, as posed by a prominent American philosopher — all in a package created by noted Southern California artists. Quick! Before they're all gone! Send in your order for KPFFK's First Annual Annual at the special prepublication price of $2.00 to: KPFFK Annual, Los Angeles 38.

A Word About the Substation

One day KPFFK was approached by a subscriber with an idea. He proposed a KPFFK art gallery which would be an open forum for visual art just as KPFFK is for the spoken word. This gallery, assisting the artists by arranging well-publicized exhibitions, would contribute to KPFFK a portion of the proceeds from the sale of art objects. On September 26th, Carl Vedro's idea became a reality and the KPFFK Substation opened. The opening, a showing of Arthur Barth's collection of Primitive African Art, was followed by an equally exciting display of woodcuts, etchings, drawings, and paintings by a well-known Southland artist, Alec Cowan. KPFFK subscribers and friends are invited to visit the gallery where new and interesting exhibits will constantly be shown. Visitors at the Substation will also find Christmas and Channukah cards featuring original Alec Cowan woodcuts unlike those available anywhere else. The cards can be purchased at the Substation or from KPFFK, Los Angeles 38. The Substation is located at 615 North Fairfax. Drop in to browse and buy.

Five Nights in the Ghetto

There is a siege within the city. There is an enclave, a community of color, and of cultural contrasts. We have called it "the ghetto" here because certain of the implications of this word seem suitable. There is the oppression of poverty and neglect. There are walls of misunderstanding and fear. And, finally, there is the in-turning of the people of this "ghetto" for the satisfaction of life which the community-at-large seems so reluctant to share with them. The more abstract the analogy becomes when the Negro's urban America is compared to the medieval city districts to which Jews were confined, the more appropriate it seems, for "the ghetto" we must ultimately put upon our map is not limited by time and place. "The ghetto" is here, in the strangeness which separates "them" from "us." It exists in the human heart.

The above was written by Leonard Brown, who, with a team of volunteers, produced for KPFFK a series of five programs on the Negro community in Los Angeles. The series is titled "Five Nights in the Ghetto" and can be heard at 9:30 p.m. on October 26, 27, 28, and 30, and at 9:00 p.m. on November 2.

Dylan Thomas

October 27, 1914 - November 9, 1953

It seems appropriate to honor the great Welsh poet at this time, in what would have been his 50th year, and in light of the success of the play Dylan, the recent issuance of several new BBC programs and the discovery of recordings not formerly available.

Each weekday morning at 9:15 from October 28 on, during this Folio, we'll present readings by Thomas. These include a UCLA lecture, a recording made at KPFA and a portion of Sean O'Casey's autobiography. Alec Guinness as Dylan will be broadcast October 31 at 12 noon; Richard Burton's version of Under Milk Wood can be heard at 9:30 p.m. November 1, and Thomas' own recording of this play will be broadcast at 3:00 p.m. on November 5. Two documentaries on Thomas will be heard: 8:15 p.m. on November 4 and 11:00 a.m. on November 7.

On November 9 (the first day of the next Folio) we will present Thomas' Return Journey in a version prepared especially for KPFK by William Wintersol, together with two more programs in memoriam.

The Pursuit of Self-Knowledge: J. Krishnamurti

Limited Folio space has required us to reserve until now our comments on a series of lectures by J. Krishnamurti which began on October 4. J. Krishnamurti has been a lecturer and teacher throughout the world for over forty years. He is widely respected for his psychological insights. His lectures invite you to confront inner reality: topics include self-awareness, hatred, and meditation. There are fourteen programs in the series, which is titled "Self-Knowledge." The programs were recorded at Ojai in 1949. Complete transcripts are available for $2.00 from Krishnamurti Writings, Inc., P.O. Box 37, Ojai. The lectures are being broadcast on Sundays at 12:00 noon, with a rebroadcast on the following Friday at 2:30.
